DETAILED ACTION

This action is in response to the filing on 03-10-09. Claims 2-8, 10-11, 13-14, 19 have been canceled and Claims 1, 9, 12, 15-18 and 20-36 are pending and have been considered below:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1, 9, 12, 15-18, 21-31 and 33-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Coulthard et al ("Coulthard" 2004003091 A1) in view of Cohen (US 7024658 B1).

Claim 1: Coulthard discloses online help functionality for and IDE and content that is context sensitive help (content specific to the tool) and provides search capabilities that are updated in the integrated development environment (Page 2, Paragraph 8).

Coulthard discloses wherein the documentation content for the integrated development environment extension is integrated with the help system during the import of the integrated development environment extension. (Page 2, Paragraph 8) Once a tool is provided as a plug-in (import) the help style documentation is also contributed by the tool.

However, Coulthard does not explicitly disclose the help display being configured to display content in a web browser. However Cohen discloses an extensible help facility for a computer software application and further discloses the help system being configured to display content in a web browser (Column 2, Lines 3-13). Therefore it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill at the time of the invention to display content in a web browser of the modified Chan as taught by Cohen. One would have been motivated to include the help display content in a web browser in order to allow user access multiple help files through hyperlinked pages.

Claim 9: Coulthard and Cohen disclose an extension as an IDE extension as in Claim 1 above and further discloses that the help system can be integrated with an extension installation mechanism (Coulthard: Page 2, Paragraph 8).

Claim 12: Coulthard and Cohen disclose an extension as an IDE extension as in Claim 1 above and Cohen further discloses an extensible help facility for a computer software application and further discloses the help system being externally controllable (Column 3, Lines 5-20).

Claim 15: Coulthard and Cohen disclose a help system including context-sensitive help topics as in Claim 1 above and further disclose that help topics are organized by a context ID (Coulthard: Page 2, Paragraph 8).

Claim 16: Coulthard and Cohen disclose that help topics are organized by a context ID as in Claim 15 above and further disclose the context ID is a fully qualified Java class (Coulthard: Page 1, Paragraph 6). System shows the ability to utilize java resources.

Claim 17: Coulthard and Cohen disclose that help topics are organized by a context ID as in Claim 15 above and further disclose the context ID is a fully qualified name from a non-Java resource (Coulthard: Page 1, Paragraph 6). System shows the ability to utilize non-java resources.

Claim 18: Coulthard and Cohen disclose a system as in claim 1 above wherein the documentation content is in HTML or XML format (Coulthard: Page 2, Paragraph 8).

Claim 21: Coulthard and Cohen disclose a system as in Claim 1 above wherein the IDE widgets, controls, and control properties are associated with the documentation topics that can be automatically displayed in the help system when requested by a user performing a context sensitive help gesture (Coulthard: Page 2, Paragraph 8).

Claim 22: Coulthard and Cohen disclose a system of claim 1 and further disclose wherein a control is installed, documentation for the control is integrated with the help system during the installation of the control (Cohen: Column 9, Line 60-Column 10, Line 54). Here the system allows for imports and updates without restarting the application (dynamic) meaning that the data is imported during integration.

Claim 23: Coulthard and Cohen disclose a system of claim 1 and further disclose wherein each control class, method, callback, field and property has a unique context ID. (Cohen: Column 8, Line 53-Column 9, Line 15). Here code is provided that defines the content, layout etc. therefore the data included in that file will contain unique context ID for that particular content.

Claim 24: Coulthard and Cohen disclose a system of claim 1 and further disclose wherein the integrated development environment issues a context id to the help display when a context-sensitive help gesture is performed. (Cohen: Column 8, Line 53-Column 9, Line 15). Here code is provided that defines the content, layout etc. therefore the data included in that file will contain unique context ID for that particular content allowing for context sensitive help.

Claim 25: Is similar in scope to Claim 1 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

Claim 26: Is similar in scope to Claim 9 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

Claim 27: Is similar in scope to Claim 12 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

Claim 28: Is similar in scope to Claim 15 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

Claim 29: Is similar in scope to Claim 16 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

Claim 30: Is similar in scope to Claim 17 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

Claim 31: Is similar in scope to Claim 18 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

Claim 33: Is similar in scope to Claim 21 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

Claim 34: Is similar in scope to Claim 22 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

Claim 35: Is similar in scope to Claim 23 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

Claim 36: Is similar in scope to Claim 24 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

3. Claims 20 and 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Coulthard et al ("Coulthard" 2004003091 A1) and Cohen (US 7024658 B1) as applied to claim 1 in further view of Chong et al ("Chong" US 20020184610 A1)

Claim 20: Coulthard and Cohen disclose a system as in Claim 1 above but do not explicitly disclose that the documentation content can support delivery of help for a particular component in a JAR file. However Chong discloses that component can support a JAR file (Page 30, Paragraph 436). Therefore it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide documentation of the modified Coulthard to support a JAR file as taught by Chong. One would have been motivated to provide this support to improve functionality and operability of the system.

Claim 32: Is similar in scope to Claim 20 and therefore rejected under the same rationale.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments, with respect to the 103 (c) invocation applied to Calahan (7058940) have been fully considered and is persuasive. The rejection in combination with Calahan has been withdrawn. Examiner has provided a new rejection to replace Calahan which was used to only cover previously presented amendments of the final, and therefore has maintained the final status.

5. Applicant's argue that Cohen does not disclose an integrated development environment. However Cohen has been provided to disclose the help functionality as claimed by applicants. Additionally Cohen does not explicitly disclose use of an integrated environment but does disclose customizing help for different environments. By combination with Coulthard the environment in which the help of Cohen (Column 3, Lines 55-59) would be customized would be an integrated development environment.

Conclusion

Applicants amendments necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
